

Artstor Digital Library/Vat.Syr.559
Wedding Feast at Cana, circa 1219-20

THE 8TH NORTH AMERICAN SYRIAC SYMPOSIUM

June 16-19, 2019 | Brown University, Providence, RI

Held every four years since 1991, the North American Syriac Symposium brings together university professors, graduate students, and scholars from the United States and Canada as well as from Europe, the Middle East, and India. The Symposium offers a unique opportunity for exchange and discussion on a wide variety of topics related to language, literature, and cultural history of Syriac Christianity. Chronologically, the field spans from the first centuries CE to the present day; geographically, it extends from Syriac Christianity's homeland in the Middle East to India, China, and the worldwide diaspora.

For more information, please contact nasyriacsymposium@gmail.com or visit our website <https://www.brown.edu/academics/religious-studies/events-0/syriac-symposium>. Additional information will be posted in due course.

Local Steering Committee:

Susan Ashbrook Harvey, Brown University, Chair | Jae Hee Han, Brown University | Sandra Keating, Providence College | Nancy Khalek, Brown University | Ute Possek, Harvard Divinity School