

ANNOUNCEMENT:

If you are a graduate student member of NAPS who is interested in room-sharing for the 2018 Chicago Meeting, please fill out the following questionnaire in its entirety, and include the answer in the body of an email sent to Carson Bay, cmb14k@my.fsu.edu . When any two appropriate matches have applied, they will be connected by the mutual provision of each other's email addresses and phone numbers. Thereafter, the students are responsible for arranging their own housing arrangements for the 2018 meeting.

Please note that, as the responsibility for arranging housing lies with the student members themselves, it is important that students only apply for room-sharing once they have firmly committed to attend the meeting.
